

What next?

The Destinations of Leavers from Higher Education Survey captures information on student activity post graduation.

You will be asked to complete the survey six months after you graduate.

Your information is anonymised and will help to inform prospective students and higher education policy.

For more information speak to your careers department.

