Data Futures Update

IHE Annual Conference

Alison Berry- Head of Operations and Performance

Programme Update

- Programme is continuing at a rapid pace
- Completed first phase of Alpha testing, and on track for phase 2 later in the year
- Under a year to go until Data Futures goes live for 2022/23
- First year implementation is new data model and new HESA Data Platform, with an annual collection
- Beta pilot refinement underway ahead of launch next year – coding manual released end of September
- Increasing engagement with the sector – launch of DF monthly newsletter to complement other comms and events
- E-learning on the specification is live, and more modules will come on the quality assurance approach, data migration and using the HESA Data Platform

Beta Update

- Beta will take place between February – August 2022
- Encourage any and all participation – more information later this month, and gathering intention to engage
- Expectation to engage with the new HESA data platform and the new quality assurance processes as part of a full end to end test
- Ideally want to use real data in submissions, but this does not have to be from the outset of Beta
- Continued engagement with Software Suppliers, and will have a Data Entry tool available from the outset

Student 22056

- Annual Collection
- 1 August 2022 to 31 July 2023
- Online Validations Toolkit available from May 2022
- HESA Data Platform open from early 2023
